26 June 2025 Press release

Sylvia Trimborn-Ley appointed as Head of Compliance

Sylvia Trimborn-Ley (53) has been appointed as head of Helaba Landesbank Hessen-Thüringen's Compliance division, effective 1 July 2025, reporting directly to Tamara Weiss, Chief Risk Officer and a member of Helaba's Executive Board.

A graduate of business administration, Sylvia Trimborn-Ley most recently held positions at Bank Pictet & Cie (Europe) AG, including that of Chief Compliance Officer. Prior to this, she served in a number of leading risk management and compliance roles at Aareal Bank AG and Commerzbank AG, among others.

Ulrike Daus (57) has headed the Compliance division since 2018 and has done so with outstanding commitment and dedication. She will be leaving Helaba on 30 June 2025 at her own request and by amicable agreement to pursue fresh professional challenges.

"We are delighted to welcome Sylvia Trimborn-Ley on board as head of division, a truly exceptional leader who brings with her a wealth of local and global experience", remarks Tamara Weiss. "At the same time, we are grateful to Ulrike Daus, with whom we have enjoyed a consistently successful working relationship in a spirit of mutual trust, for her service to the bank. We wish her all the very best for the future, both professionally and personally."
