21 March 2025 Press release

Dr. Jürgen Wiedmann to leave Helaba Invest

Dr Jürgen Wiedmann, a member of the Management Board of Helaba Invest Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH, a subsidiary of Helaba Landesbank Hessen-Thüringen, is leaving the company at his own request and by amicable and mutual agreement on 31 March 2025 to pursue new professional challenges. "We are grateful to Dr. Jürgen Wiedmann for his many years of outstanding service and dedication to our company. He has been closely associated with both the Helaba Group and the German savings bank sector, making a valuable contribution to their development. We wish him all the best for his future, both professionally and personally", said Hans-Dieter Kemler, a member of Helaba's Executive Board with responsibility for Helaba Invest.

Dr Jürgen Wiedmann (55) has been a member of Helaba Invest's Management Board since October 2020 as COO/CRO, with additional responsibility for IT, fund administration, report-ing and risk control. A Doctor of Business Mathematics, he had previously served as head of trading settlement/custody services as well as IT at Helaba. From 2019 to 2020, he oversaw a bank-wide transformation programme.
