19 February 2020 Press release Career

Rainer Könner to enter retirement

Rainer Könner (64), head of the CRM Multinationals division, will be entering retirement on 31 March 2020 after many years of service for Helaba. Mr. Könner began his career in 1983 at Société Générale in Frankfurt. He then spent almost ten years as a key account manager at Schweizerische Kreditanstalt (Deutschland) AG, most recently as head of the Berlin branch. He joined Helaba in the summer of 1995 as the head of the CRM Multinationals division. During the implementation of the revised sales strategy, he was responsible for setting up a newly created client relationship unit for multinational corporations. For more than 20 years, Mr. Könner was responsible for the development and expansion of selected customer relationships across the bank's entire product range.

»Mr. Könner has successfully and decisively contributed to the fact that Helaba is a reliable partner for our multinational corporate clients and that it enjoys a high degree of recognition and confidence in the market.«

Dr. Norbert Schraad

Member of Helaba's Board of Managing Directors

"Mr. Könner has successfully and decisively contributed to the fact that Helaba is a reliable partner for our multinational corporate clients and that it enjoys a high degree of recognition and confidence in the market", explains Dr. Norbert Schraad, a member of Helaba's Board of Managing Directors. "Mr. Könner has significantly helped shape the bank's customer-centric approach thanks to his strong focus on the market and his excellent customer contacts. We would like to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Könner for the success he has achieved for Helaba over the many years of working for the bank in a spirit of mutual trust. We wish him all the best for the future".

Contact

Ursula-Brita Krück

Deputy Press Officer

+49 69 / 91 32 - 21 92

LinkedIn

Send a message