Management change in Real Estate Finance

Dr Jan Peter Annecke, Head of Real Estate Finance at Helaba Landesbank Hessen-Thüringen, has decided to leave the bank to pursue a new career opportunity. He will remain with the bank until the end of the year to ensure an orderly handover. The Executive Board will make decision on his successor as Head of Real Estate Finance shortly.

Having held various positions at Bayerische Hypo- und Vereinsbank AG, Hypo Real Estate Bank (now Deutsche Pfandbriefbank) and Münchener Hypothekenbank eG, Annecke initially took over as Head of Helaba's Real Estate Lending Germany business unit in 2019. He has held global responsibility for Real Estate Finance since 2020.

"Dr Annecke has played a key role in shaping Real Estate Finance and has successfully led the division's continued development in a challenging market environment. We thank him for the outstanding collaboration and mutual trust and respect his decision," said Christian Schmid, a member of Helaba's Executive Board. "We wish him all the very best for the future, both professionally and personally."
